

Nomination form for a dependant pension

On the death of a member of the Mineworkers' Pension Scheme (MPS), a pension may be payable to a surviving spouse, civil partner or financial dependant.

If you are not married or in a civil partnership, this form allows you to nominate someone to be considered for a dependant pension in the event of your death. This person must be financially dependent on you. Please note that completion of this form is not a guarantee that a discretionary pension will be awarded to your named dependant. However, it will inform the Scheme of your wishes.

You can make your nomination online by logging in to the member portal at mps-pension.org.uk and going to 'My account' then 'If I die'. Alternatively, complete ALL THREE sections of the form and return it by email to mps@brightwellpensions.com or by post to: MPS, Sunderland, SR43 4LE.
